#1000shoes

*1000 pairs of shoes
Sitting in a row
A little scuffed from where they've been Unsure of where they'll go*

*One thousand shoes all sizes
Big right down to small
Shoes that long to be placed with care
In their own space in the hall*

*Between the boots that keep you safe
And the slippers that speak of much love
One thousand shoes needing footsteps to follow
Of which there just aren't enough*

*But you have the space, right there on the stair!
To offer a very fresh start
To a child that needs a loving home
And the soul that needs a heart*

*Your chance to change a journey
A challenge for which you could rise
Indeed they are big shoes to fill
But they might be exactly your size*
